

HEXUS is the UK's leading Tech Community site and has become the most trusted source of information for the serious tech enthusiast.

With no industry ties, HEXUS has earned a reputation for independent, no nonsense reviews and provides daily news for the tech obsessed.

Dedicated Gaming & Lifestyle channels provide updates, tests and reviews of everything users need to complete their digital home.

AMD  says: " HEXUS is a premier website in the IT community and its unbiased, comprehensive and thorough reviews bring exceptional credibility.

Their relationship with vendors is a leading strength and their professional attitude, with tongue-in-cheek humour, makes it a pleasure to work with them. "

Dave Everitt, European Platforms & Solutions Manager, Advanced Micro Devices, Inc.
